Reply to the AARC: Individual Claimant Sound Recording Fund/copyright ownership.

I am responding to the AARC claims and testimony of their witness Richard Seltzer sworn statement that he confirms thru soundscans data that there were no sales data for Eugene "Lambchops" Curry/TAJAI MUSIC INC. I disagree. Like I have said in earlier claims that soundscan is not accurate on any data. I have enclosed the necessary documents to prove that I had sales of 1million at least of the song used on Atlantic and Sony's artist. So I am entitled to a portion of that fund to be determined by the Board. Thank You!

Thank You!

DEFINITION OF REAL, the blockbuster second album from Big Gates/Slip-N-Slide/Atlantic recording artist Plies, has been certified gold by the RIAA for sales in excess of 500,000. The album – which features the #1 single, 'Bust It Baby Part 2 Ft. Ne-Yo' – debuted at #2 on the Billboard 200 chart upon its June release, with sales of 214,000 – the highest selling first-week numbers in the history of the Miami-based Slip-N-Slide Records. Plies' next album, Da REAList, is slated to hit the streets on December 16th, marking the Ft. Myers, Florida-based rap superstar's third full-length release in just under 16 months. Da REAList is now available to pre-order at pliesworld.com/preorder. Fans can pick up an exclusive DVD, signed photo and enter for a chance to go to Plies' album release party, all expenses paid, in Tampa Bay, Florida on December 16th.

ABOUT:

PLIES, born in the controversial streets of Ft. Myers, Florida Plies began his musical career in 2003 with the guidance of his older brother Ronell "Big Gates" Levette. Signed to Big Gates/Slip-N-Slide/Atlantic records, PLIES made an impressive national debut in August of 2007 with his certified gold album The Real Testament which spawned chart topping singles such as "Shawty" feat. T-Pain, "Hypnotized" feat. Akon and "I Am the Club" and sold over 2 million ring tones collectively. In recent months the rapper has launched an interactive, dual purpose fan club, and kicked off a nationwide "Street Elections 08" campaign in preparations of his 3rd album Da REAList.

DEFINITION OF REAL was released in stores and online on Tuesday, June 10, 2008 and was led by a compilation of chart topping singles including "Bust It Baby pt. 2" featuring Nemo and the official 2nd single "Please Excuse My Hands" featuring Jaime Foxx and The Dream. The album caters to a diverse fan base with the contemplative "Worth Goin' Fed For," and heart-wrenching "Somebody Loves You," which gave life to Big Gates and Plies Power of Visions "Somebody Loves You" Scholarship (www.pliesworld.com/somebodylovesyou).

DA REAList will be available in stores and online on Tuesday, December 16, 2008, Plies 2nd album release this year. Da REAList has been preceived as Plies most dynamic musical efforts to date as it creatively touches on life, love, and politics. Several tracks from the album including the controversial "Pants Hang Low" and the street elections anthem "Heard of Me" have been overwhelming the streets, underground radio, and night clubs across the country.
